PBC PRESIDENT MESSAGE

Nawa Akitaru!

With the first thunder we celebrate a new year. A time of renewed life, health, happiness, and opportunities for prosperity. This new season brings new opportunities and growth to our nation as many funding opportunities are announced and planning is initiated on new projects which add to our current infrastructure. Our goals this 2nd Quarter are to attend a 2-day, immersive Planning Session, develop a draft short-term strategic plan, identify priority needs from current activities and review our List of Infrastructure Goals and Activities to assess our current state.

These activities are essential to discuss the current state of the Nation in order to highlight gaps or areas of concern, alongside the positive outcomes listed. We must continue to identify and track our deficiencies to ensure they are adequately assigned and tracked, until they are appropriately resolved. We have a lot of great activities and events going on at the Nation; however, they are not getting the appropriate attention they deserve. This area is being addressed and a plan of action initiated to increase our communication of these areas and events. On February 16, 2026, I was invited to speak at the State of the City event, presented by the Pawnee Chamber of Commerce. In doing so, a comprehensive summation of the Nation’s current projects was shared with the attendees. I am sharing this with you, as well:

Pawnee Nation Development Update

The Pawnee Nation is making significant strides in economic and infrastructure development to enhance the well-being of our community. Below is an overview of our key initiatives and projects that are currently underway or planned for the near future.

Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS)

In 2025, the Pawnee Nation updated its Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy to shape a stronger future. Through surveys and town halls, we gathered insights on demographics, community needs, and workforce development opportunities. Our focus was on housing improvements, assessing our current school structure, and identifying strategies to attract top talent to Pawnee. This effort aims to create a sustainable and thriving local economy. (Continued to page 3)

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Nawa,

As we concluded 2025 and began preparing for a new year, the Pawnee Nation continued to focus on strengthening our community through cultural gatherings, governance efforts, and programs that support the health and well-being of our people. The last quarter of the year was filled with meaningful events, important discussions about our Nation’s future, and opportunities for our citizens to come together. The holiday season brought many opportunities for citizens and families to gather and celebrate our traditions.

The Pawnee Nation Holiday Christmas Market, held December 12–13, showcased the creativity and craftsmanship of local artisans. Community members enjoyed shopping with local vendors and watching a traditional woodcarving demonstration.

On December 18, the Pawnee Business Council partnered with the City of Pawnee to host the annual Community Christmas Party at the Multi-purpose Gymnasium. The evening was filled with food, games, and holiday cheer as families gathered together and enjoyed a fun filled event. From December 27 through December 31, the Holiday Handgames brought many of our people together for friendly competition and fellowship. These events continue to be a valued tradition during the holiday season. Supporting the health and well-being of our citizens remains a priority by providing opportunities for community members to stay active and improve their health in the new year.

As we move forward into 2026, Pawnee Nation leadership remains committed to strengthening our government, supporting community programs, and preserving the cultural traditions that unite us as Pawnee people. We encourage all citizens to stay engaged, attend community events, and participate in discussions that shape the future of our Nation.

Thank you to all the staff, volunteers, elders, and community members who continue to contribute to the strength of the Pawnee Nation.
Respectfully,

Virgil Wade
Executive Director
Pawnee Nation

PAWNEE NATION SUBMITS PETITION TO WITHDRAW SECRETARIAL ELECTION DUE TO BALLOT DELAYS AND TO PRESERVE THE INTEGRITY OF THE ELECTION

The Pawnee Nation initiated a Secretarial Election to amend its Constitution under Resolution #25-35, and subsequent amendments under Resolution #25-36. Last week, the Constitution Convention Delegates identified operational and coordination issues affecting the ballot mailing timelines required for Secretarial Elections. These concerns were brought to the Attorney General, the Governing Documents Committee, and the Pawnee Business Council (“PBC”) for review and action.

CONTINUED: PETITION TO WITHDRAW THE SECRETARIAL ELECTION

The major issues identified leading up to the PBC special meeting included the following acts and omissions:

- the BIA failed to print the necessary number of ballots;
- the BIA failed to provide adequate support to the Nation's Election Commission;
- the Election Commission failed to include all materials required with the mailed ballots;
- there was an operational omission, as the Nation could not effectively or timely track which ballots were received by voters

Cumulatively, the primary cause of these issues was (1) a failure for all parties' duties to be specifically identified, (2) a failure to manage deadlines and expectations with hard task completion dates, and (3) general internal communications between the Nation and BIA. While an exact number was not reported to the PBC, it is believed that close to half of the necessary ballots were not mailed out to our eligible voters. The PBC then held a special meeting on February 26, 2026, which included a conversation with the Election Commission and Attorney General's office in executive session.

After leaving executive session, the PBC amended the agenda to pass Resolution #26-09, which submits a petition to withdraw the Nation's previous petition for a Secretarial Election under Resolution #25-35 to be compliant with both the federal requirements of Secretarial Elections and the Nation's own Constitution and Election laws. The PBC found this to be the most appropriate action for three primary reasons:

1. Upholding the integrity of the election;
2. Ensuring all eligible voters of the Pawnee Nation receive a ballot and can exercise their civic rights; and
3. To not waste any further federal or tribal resources.

While we wait to hear back from the Secretary of the Interior on the status of this withdraw request, the Secretarial Election is still ongoing. Those of you that did receive your ballots, you may vote and return those with the prepaid envelopes that should have been included in the packets you received. All ballots received will be maintained in compliance with the federal and tribal election laws.

Once the withdrawal is complete, the PBC will be able to resume the amendment process as soon as feasible by submitting a new petition, after the identified issues are resolved. In the interim period, the PBC will also be requesting that the Secretary of the Interior ensure that the regional offices of the BIA and their staff can fulfill their duties to the Pawnee Nation - in staffing, funding, printing, and delivering ballots in a timely manner. The PBC remains committed to holding the federal government accountable for its trust obligations to our Nation, protecting election integrity, and ensuring a sound and fair election process for all Pawnee Nation citizens. The fair electoral process starts with ensuring our citizens receive their ballots in a timely matter.

We have also requested that the Attorney General's office work on preparing training materials for the Election Commission and assist in drafting a realistic election timeline for the BIA to both approve and ensure it can commit the required resources too. When these requests are completed, the Pawnee Nation will be submitting a new petition for a new Secretarial Election going over the same Constitutional Amendments. Then, the Election Commission will also be adequately equipped to navigate the BIA, the election, and remain an independent commission. The PBC has full faith in our Election Commission's ability to oversee the next election once federal resources are properly committed and training is provided by the Attorney General's office and/or the BIA.

The PBC appreciates the patience of Pawnee Nation citizens and apologizes for any inconvenience and frustration this may cause. Additional updates will be provided as the withdrawal process moves forward and preparations begin for a new Secretarial Election.

The PBC expresses its gratitude to the Constitution Convention Delegates for their three and a half years of dedicated work, to the Election Commission for its efforts and long hours, to our federal partners for their continued support and willingness to meet with us to address the concerns that arose, and most importantly to our citizens.

The PBC remains committed to protecting the voting rights of Pawnee Nation citizens and ensuring every eligible voter has a fair and equal opportunity to cast a ballot in all our Nation's elections.

President's Message to the People Continued'

Tribal Energy Development Capacity Grant (TEDC) Strengthening our utility infrastructure is a top priority. This project will enhance our ability to manage and oversee critical services such as water, electricity, sewage, and broadband expansion. The initiative began with a kick-off meeting in January, and we are currently reviewing utility rates for all buildings on our campus to ensure cost-effective and efficient management.

Grid Resilience

We are committed to modernizing our energy infrastructure. Our current initiative focuses on designing and implementing new underground electrical lines in partnership with Indian Electric Cooperative. We are conducting a cost analysis to determine the financial scope of the project before entering negotiations for cost-matching and implementation. Additionally, remaining funds will be allocated toward other projects aimed at preventing power outages and improving service reliability for our community.

Renewable Energy & Environmental Projects

Our commitment to sustainability and innovation continues with several environmental projects:

Sensor Development: The PN Housing Authority, worked with electrical contractors, and installed home sensors to monitor energy usage and efficiency. Data is currently being collected every month to develop a comprehensive report.

Workforce Development: Working with OSU IT to bring a certificate program for solar installation/maintenance. This will give 10 individuals the opportunity to special in this renewable energy field.

OU Research Report: OU is doing analysis on the censor deployment and will produce a final report once project is complete.

Indian Community Development Block Grant-WED FY24
To support the expansion of our Nation, we are doubling the capacity of our lagoon system—from two lagoons to four. This improvement will ensure sustainable wastewater management and accommodate future community growth.
Infrastructure Strategic Plan & Bureau of Indian Affairs Tribal

Climate Planning

Planning for the future is critical. We are conducting an engineering study to design a water treatment and filtration system that will address water hardness and improve quality. Additionally, a new engineering and design plan for new fire hydrants and engineering/design services for the lagoon expansion.

Bridges

Infrastructure is a cornerstone of economic and community development. We have submitted applications for over 40 bridge projects across the Pawnee Nation jurisdiction. Additionally, plans are in place for a railroad overpass that will provide direct access for future Pawnee Nation enterprises, by enhancing transportation and logistics in our region.

Projects – Still in Planning

ICDBG FY25 PN Elder Efficiency Units – There is a need for elder assisted living units; to help accommodate for this aging demographic. Homes built generations before focused on younger families without planning for future elder use. Elders who choose to stay at home, often live alone, despite an obvious need to have some type of home health care. This proposal addresses the ever-growing need of the elderly population, and provide safe, affordable housing, for this vulnerable population.
Rural Health Transformation Program-Oklahoma has officially secured $223.5 million for the first budget period of a five-year grant through the Rural Health Transformation (RHT) Program, part of a historic $50 billion federal investment authorized by the One Big Beautiful Bill Act This funding brings new resources to rural communities statewide. The Pawnee Nation eagerly anticipates the Funding Opportunity Announcement and plans to focus efforts on Community Health and ways to incorporate the Community Health Aide Partnership Program.

Development of small enterprise businesses, researching appropriate business models, and investing funds utilizing the The State Small Business Credit Initiative (SSBCI), reauthorized by the 2021 American Rescue Plan Act and determining priority areas for funding and projects utilizing Opioid Settlement Funds from the legal settlements reached between state, local, and tribal governments and numerous companies in the pharmaceutical supply chain involved in the opioid epidemic. These funds are being distributed in multiple installments over an 18-year period to support addiction treatment, prevention, and recovery efforts. It is the hopes of the Pawnee Nation that program designs and services will impose a lasting impact on the opioid epidemic, drug addiction and decrease and prevent unnecessary fatalities.

As a Council, we always look forward to bringing awareness to what is happening at the Nation. We are grateful for the opportunity to participate and enjoy hearing what is happening in our community. The Pawnee Nation is dedicated to seeking out and bringing much needed resources, which will address critical needs in which we feel we have the capacity to develop, administer and sustain. We hope all our efforts make lasting impacts on crucial needs necessary to elevate and enhance all our programs, services and activities to benefit our Pari akitaru.

Mollie Ann Rice Davidson, age 88, of Pawnee, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on December 16, 2025, in her hometown of Pawnee.

Mollie was born on February 21, 1937, in Pawnee, Oklahoma, to Robert P. Rice and Christine Hand Rice. She was a proud, full-blood member and elder of the Pawnee Nation.

She attended Pawnee Indian Boarding School and later Haskell Indian Junior College. In her early adult years, Mollie worked as a seamstress and later served her community as a Title VI cook for the Pawnee Nation, a role she took great pride in.

Mollie was married to Roger Skeen, whose military service took them overseas for a time, and later to Wayne Davidson. Through these years, Mollie lived in several places, including Kansas City, Missouri, though Pawnee always remained home.

She was the mother of Dan, Lolita, Phil, Robert, Cheryl Sue, JoAnne, Launita, Gregg, Harvey and Michael.

Mollie was proceeded in death by her parents, Robert and Christine Rice; her sisters Sharon, Wanda, and Rebecca; her brothers Dennis, Robert, Lawrence, and Herb; and her sons Dan, Robert and daughter Cheryl Sue.

REBECCA SUE EPPLER "CUSARI CAHIKS"

March 14, 1940-
January 18, 2026

Rebecca "Becky" Eppler, of Pawnee, was born March 14, 1940 to Adam and Hazel (White) Pratt, and was called home on January 18, 2026, at Stillwater Medical Center.

Becky was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 47 years, Teddy Eppler, and her daughter, Laureen Eppler. She attended Pawnee Indian Boarding School (aka Gravy U) and graduated from the Haskell Institute at Lawrence, Kansas. She earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Oklahoma State University.

She was a member of the Pawnee Indian Baptist Church and a proud member of the Skidi Band of Pawnee Nation. She served her tribe in various leadership positions, including Treasurer of the Pawnee Business Council.

Becky's knowledge of her tribal culture did not come from a book, as she would say, and she was called on as a consultant on numerous books and projects including the Adler Planetarium & Astronomy Museum, the Heard Museum, both in Chicago, the University of Nebraska, the National Lewis & Clark Bicentennial Commemoration and the American Indian Integration of Baseball. She was the proud wife, mother and grandmother of veterans and served as President of the Pawnee War Mothers. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, dances, singing, Handgames, and teasing. Becky will be remembered for her wisdom, laugh and her feisty wit, but mostly her positive outlook on life, which she attributed to her unwavering faith in Jesus Christ.

She is survived by her daughter, Lozana Eppler (Mark Collins) of Pawnee; her son, Eddy Eppler (Emilee) of Broken Arrow; brothers, Duane (Lesley) Pratt and Allen Dale Pratt, of Pawnee; sister, Eileen Sands, of Oklahoma City, eleven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

PRINCESS CORA PRATT PERFORMS DEW DROP FAIRY IN THE NUTCRACKER

Pawnee Nation Princess/Pâri Ctêsâru' Cora Marie Pratt performed as the Dew Drop Fairy in Studio K Performing Arts Center's production of The Nutcracker on December 21. A 16-year-old sophomore and dedicated dancer, Pratt represented the Pawnee Nation while showcasing her ballet skills with the Studio K Performing Arts Center Facebook page.

In addition to her 2024 performance as the Dew Drop Fairy, Cora Pratt has been a dedicated student and performer at the Studio K Performing Arts Center in Pawnee, Oklahoma, for several years.

Her previous roles and involvement in the studio's productions include:

Flower in the Waltz of the Flowers: In earlier years of training, Pratt progressed through the corps de ballet roles typical for senior students before being cast in lead soloist positions.

Lead Dancer: Pratt has frequently been featured in senior-level group performances and small ensemble pieces for the studio's annual winter and spring showcases.

Cultural Performer: While not strictly a ballet role, she has utilized her dance background to represent the Pawnee Nation as Princess, performing traditional dances at events such as Native American Heritage Night for the Tulsa Oilers and at the Tulsa Native American Day.

Right: Princess Cora attended the 2026 Haskell Indian Nations University Spring "Welcome Back" Powwow on February 24 in Lawrence, Kansas.

In her dual capacity as a senior ballet student and the 2025–2026 Pawnee Nation Princess/Pâri Ctêsâru', Cora Pratt held several high-profile roles during her reign:

- Cultural Representative: Serving in her second reign as Princess, Cora represented the Pawnee Nation at various dances, powwows and cultural events. She participated in events hosted by the Pawnee Nation during Native American Heritage Month.
- Outgoing Royalty and Mentor: Throughout January 2026, she served as a mentor for the incoming 2026–2027 royalty. She was a featured attendee and leader at the Pawnee Nation Princess Celebration and Coronation on January 8, 2026, where she helped prepare for the transition of the title to Isabelle Bayhulle LeadingFox.
- Community Leader: In late 2025, she continued her advocacy work by appearing at the ICW Resource and Family Safety Fair, where she promoted the importance of foster care within the tribe.
- Student Leader: As a senior at Pawnee Public Schools, she participated in school-specific milestone events, such as the Senior Sunrise ceremony for the Class of 2026.

2026-2027 PAWNEE NATION PRINCESS

Isabelle Bayhulle LeadingFox is the 2026-2027 Pawnee Nation Princess.

Her coronation took place during the Pawnee Nation Princess Dance on February 22, 2026, at the Pawnee Roundhouse in Pawnee, Oklahoma. The event, hosted by the Pawnee Nation Princess Committee, celebrated the transition from the outgoing princess, Cora Pratt, to Isabelle Bayhulle LeadingFox for the new term.

Following her coronation, she is expected to appear at major regional events, such as the Haskell Indian Nations University Spring Powwow, which typically occurs shortly after the February transition.

Isabelle is the daughter of Pat and Vicky LeadingFox. She comes from a family deeply rooted in Pawnee education and leadership; her sister, Sky Seeing Ruth LeadingFox, was a high-achieving student at Sequoyah High School during her term as Pawnee Tribal Princess. Isabelle now joins her sisters Sky Seeing, Jessica Leading Fox and Skidi Leading Fox in being crowned Pawnee Nation Princess.

Pâri Ctêsâru' Isabelle Bayhulle Leading Fox

Isabelle Bayhulle Leading Fox, Čîsâri Čahiks, is the incoming 2026-2027 Pawnee Nation Princess and the youngest daughter of Patrick Leading Fox Sr. and Victoria Leading Fox. Her siblings include three sisters, Jessica, Skidi, and Sky Seeing Leading Fox, and brother Patrick Leading Fox Jr.

Isabelle is a 17-year-old senior at Pawnee High School and is finishing her first year at Meridian Technology Center in the Health Careers Program, focusing on Medical Core, Certified Nursing Aide, and Home Health Aide courses. She is a member of the Northern Plains Indian Club and actively participates in Meridian Tech's student organization-Future Health Professionals.

Isabelle is a Ckiri Pawnee from both her maternal and paternal sides. She descends from the Ponca Nation of Oklahoma & the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians through her mother, and from the Kitkehaki Band through both her parents. She is Pahukstâtu, which is the Pumpkin Vine clan from the Ckiri Band.

Isabelle's first and middle names honor the wife of Rêsâru'sirîtêriku, meaning "Chief They All Look To" in Pawnee, also known as Baptiste Bayhulle. Isabelle Bayhulle, Tsa Ta Ra Huddi, was a Ckiri Pawnee woman known as "Woman Dust Cloud". She had married Baptiste Bayhulle in the early 1870s, after he was named an Interpreter in the 1857 Treaty of Table Creek and his time as a sergeant in 1867 in Company C, a Ckiri company. Isabelle's maternal lineage reflects humility and accountability rather than status, which Baptiste's wife, Isabelle Bayhulle, is a notable reminder of those standards.

Isabelle was given her Pawnee name, Čîsâri Čahiks, meaning "Princess of the People", by her father, Patrick Leading Fox Sr. This name was passed down from his late mother, Myrtle Pratt, and bestowed upon Isabelle before she finished her term as the 2024-2025 Pawnee Indian Veterans Homecoming Princess. Myrtle Pratt carried this name during her own service and representation for the tribe as Miss Haskell.

Guided by a unique cultural upbringing, Isabelle is currently preparing for a future in the healthcare field. Through her studies in medical terminology, anatomy & physiology, and clinical training for CNA, and HHA coursework, she has the skills necessary to achieve the highest quality of care and service to others with compassion and dedication. Isabelle plans to continue her studies in health sciences, whether it's Public Health or Biological Sciences; she plans to pursue an intentional and personal commitment to continue to support the well-being of any individual and their communities through education and healthcare by honoring the values of her academic and cultural foundation.

During her reign, Isabelle would like to remain committed to believing in the strength of balancing a strong traditional knowledge with modern education and views this relationship as essential to sustaining her and her family's Pawnee identity and sovereignty. Isabelle is committed to supporting the opportunities that uplift young people, strengthen cultural connections, and honor the teachings passed down through the generations in the community. Isabelle hopes to serve as a positive role model for our young people by promoting cultural pride, education, and service.

Isabelle is honored and grateful to represent the Pawnee Nation and is proud to continue to carry her cultural identity with pride. Isabelle and her family would like to extend sincere gratitude towards our Pawnee people for nurturing her in our age of Pawnee culture and guiding her towards this journey of life lessons, memories, and, of course, service.

My work represents the human condition. The gestational period is shown through mixing the clay. Transforming the pugged porcelain into a vessel demonstrates birth and growth. Deconstructing the vessels with water epitomizes the complex emotions that humans experience such as, anxiety and depression. The emotionality of the human experience is detrimental to life because emotions effect not only our mentality but our physicality as well. I have lived with anxiety and depression, and I believe that my most anxious or depressive episodes have the most impact on my mental and physical state. My pieces emphasize this part of the human condition because I view these episodes as my make or break point in life. The final product represents the emotions and experiences that have the strongest impact on our lives.

PAWNEE NATION LAW ENFORCEMENT

It was a snow-covered season for Pawnee Nation Law Enforcement. The sun refused to not shine, though.

PAWNEE NATION TOR HOSTS 1ST MEDICINE WHEEL & 12 STEP WELLBRIETY CERTIFICATION

The Pawnee Nation's TOR-Tribal Opioid Response department recently hosted their inaugural Medicine Wheel & 12 Step Wellbriety Certification program, a transformative three-day event focused on spiritual and emotional healing.

Held from February 11th to 13th, the program emphasized Wellbriety, a community-oriented recovery approach that empowers facilitators to lead Circles of Wellbriety within their own communities.

These Circles tackle a broad range of recovery challenges, including intergenerational trauma, addiction, and mental health issues, fostering a communal healing environment known as a "Healing Forest."

Through regular meetings, participants cultivate new thought patterns, attitudes, and self-perceptions, promoting trust, autonomy, and spiritual growth.

The program's modular design supports prevention, treatment, intervention, and recovery across diverse demographics, including individuals, families, and communities. By embedding the teachings into daily life, participants embark on a journey towards a balanced, sober life, enriched by strong social and emotional connections.

This was just one of our upcoming training courses to be held this year with White Bison. We look forward to seeing you and working with you again. This was a learning experience and such a blessing to see the healing in progress and taking place and going back into our native communities.

The Medicine Wheel & 12 Step Wellbriety program, developed by White Bison, blends Indigenous teachings with recovery steps, often utilizing a, "blanket ceremony" to lay out sacred items representing the Four Directions (East, South, West, North) and principles of healing. Items typically include symbols of the Four Directions—yellow, red, black, and white—along with sacred medicines (sage, cedar, sweetgrass, tobacco) and tools for emotional, mental, physical, and spiritual balance.

Pawnee Nation TOR would like to give special thanks to Andrea Alexander, WhiteBison, Inc/Wellbriety Facilitator for teaching our class.

A big thank you to Steven Moore for our cedar blessing on the first day of our training.

Also, to our Pawnee Nation Executive Director, Virgil Wade, for taking some time to welcome our 25 participants.

Also, would like to recognize President Misty Nuttle for accommodating our space for this wonderful training. I want to also say thank you to Leah Gardipe Vannoy who provided frybread for our Friday meal and don't want to leave out the PN property team for always making sure we have everything in place.

DIVISION OF AGRICULTURE

NON-NATIVE STENCH OF SPRING

In 2025, under the encouragement of the Pawnee Nation Division of Agriculture staff and members of the Agriculture Committee, a resolution was passed by the Pawnee Business Council to ban a highly invasive, non-native tree on tribal reserve land. Commonly known as the Callery or Bradford Pear Tree, it originates from East Asia. In early spring the tree produces many white flowers that persist for about two weeks, having an unpleasant aroma sometimes described as "fish-y". It will rapidly spread by underground runners, and in bird droppings after they eat the fruit (technically, the flesh is edible because it is not outright poisonous, but flavor and texture are unpleasant and it can cause tummy distress.) It has become a serious environmental nuisance, especially in the eastern half of the state.

The limbs are known to break easily in wind and ice storms contributing to utility outages because it is so commonly planted in yards under powerlines. Arguably worse is the damage it has caused through unplanned invasions, overtaking agricultural lands, limiting the growth of beneficial native species, and negatively impacting grassland wildlife in areas that it grows so tightly packed the ground is fully shaded. Watch as you drive in early to mid-April and you will see many pointy-topped white trees packed together in fields that used to be grass. Unfortunately, despite the facts and warnings of its existence, the state of Oklahoma has failed to declare it as a plant deserving regulations to ban the sale and planting of it as other states have done.

Pawnee tribal members and friends are encouraged to learn to identify the tree and not allow its growth on one's property. To remove, cut the tree down and treat the stump to prevent it from sprouting again from the roots. Native species such as Dogwood, Viburnums, and our State Tree Redbud are some viable replacement trees. To learn more about the stench of spring one can find information on the website of OK State University, Natural Resources, Extension, Callery Pear.

The Legacy of Roy Taylor & brother Joseph Toahy

written by Dena Cosby (Anontoope)

On February 19, 2026, the Pawnee Nation Communications Office interviewed Pawnee Nation member Roy Taylor about his service in the Korean War and his family of military warriors. The interview was conducted by Marvin Paul Hand who serves as the current Pawnee Indian Veterans President. The interview begins with Taylor explaining how important military service was to his family. During the interview, Taylor paid special recognition to his mother who raised six boys that all fought in World War II. "She was one of the first members of the society of War Mothers. Her name was Libby Weeks Taylor." Roy Taylor joined the Marine Corps at age seventeen during the height of the Korean War. He served with the 1st Marine Division. According to the December 2012 Chaticks si Chaticks issue, page four, the Pawnee Business Council honored Roy Taylor for his service in Korea by holding a Native American Marine Corps Veterans 237th Birthday Celebration which opened with a Flag Ceremony and included a lunch provided by the Comanche Tribe and a series of Gourd dances throughout the day

You might recall Taylor from his battles for the return of his ancestor's remains and regalia in a case of a member of the Pawnee Nation of Oklahoma, plaintiff, versus the Kingdom of Sweden and the National Museum of World Culture. In this case, Taylor, represented by a Chicago Law firm, challenged a government agency under the Swedish Ministry of Culture for the repatriation of stolen Native American Art.

In 1874, White Fox (Keh-wuk-oo-tah-kat), a member of the Pawnee Tribe residing in present-day Nebraska, traveled to Sweden to partake in a "Wild West" show during which White Fox and other Native Americans performed dances and rituals for European audiences. White Fox was only in Europe for a brief time before exposure to tuberculosis, contracting the disease, and suddenly dying. White Fox's Pawnee traveling associates requested to take his remains and individual property back to the United States for proper, honorable, and traditional burial and mourning rituals. The Swedish government refused and claimed his remains and property for "scientific purposes" according to Gabrela landolfo, author of An Old-World Discovery for New World Justice: The FSIA Path to Repatriate Stolen Native American Art found in the Columbia Journal of Law & Social Problems.

Despite requests and legal pursuits, White Fox's remains, war shirt, leggings, moccasins, earrings, and necklace remain overseas and on display in Sweden's National Museum of World Culture.

From serving in the Korean War to litigation with foreign governments, Taylor speaks to the warrior spirit and maintains it in all that he pursues. He elaborated on his family of warriors, listing his brothers and their branches of service:

- Amos served in the Army
- Joseph served in the Marine Corps & Coast Guard
- Benny served in the Navy (Aleutians)
- Ralph served in the Marine Corps (fought in Saipan & Peleliu)
- Jimmy served in the Navy Medical Corpsman (wounded in Korea)
- Roy served in the Marine Corps

Taylor's second eldest brother, Joeseoph Robert Toahy, was half Pawnee and half Kiowa and inherited the name Le-Tuts-Taka or White Eagle from a Pawnee ancestor Chief White Eagle. According to the interview with Taylor, "Joe Toahy's Indian name follows the old-time, traditional way of giving a young man a name. Joe Toahy definitely earned it.

In 1941, Toahy enlisted in the Coast Guard and a year later deployed to Guadalcanal, the Collaborators' first amphibious operation of World War II. According to the United States Coast Guard, during his time in the Service, Toahy and the Coast Guard would establish a world record of firsts. After enlisting in the Coast Guard, he became the first Pawnee Native American to go to sea. As a member of the Guadalcanal invasion force, Toahy also became the first Native American to participate in a U.S. naval offensive operation and the first to set foot in enemy territory during the war.

Joseph Toahy passed away in 1997 at the age of 77. He is among many distinguished Coast Guard veterans who served in the long blue line. "I am very pleased to forward a Purple Heart Medal and Certificate to you for service at Guadalcanal in August of 1984. Men such as you who have made great contributions to the grand heritage of the Coast Guard make me proud to be a member of our service." -Captain James Parent, Office of Personnel, U.S. Coast Guard, 1984.

In January 2025, the U.S. Coast Guard officially notified Roy Taylor's family that Joseph Toahy has been selected to have a vessel named after him. This will be the first U.S. ship named after a Native American. Toahy's daughter, Mary Louise Stevens, chose the Gulf of Mexico near Louisiana as the location for the ship's future christening. The ship is expected to be completed by 2026.
